The coal oil magnate, John D. Rockefeller, is planning gifts of money for educational and charitable purposes which it is said will so far surpass any contributions he has hitherto made that announcement of them will astonish the country. His method of selecting objects for his benefactions has been changed, however, and hereafter they will be made largely upon the advice of his son and according to systems learned by the younger man when he was in Europe a few months ago.

The editor of the Frankfort Journal, who is an expert on kissing, thus discourses on that subject: The Chicago man who was fined $10 for kissing a telephone girl on the back of her neck caught it about right. A man who doesn't know any more than to kiss a girl on the back of her neck, when pouting lips are ripe and ready, deserves to suffer humiliation and loss of money.

A VIRGINIA judge has just decided that liar used in a debate, on the curbstone or elsewhere, is equivalent to the first blow, and if an assault follows it is strictly within the law. Very righteous judge. "You're another" don't go in Virginia as in Ohio, and the man that calls another a liar must either be ready for a fight or a foot race.

ACCORDING to the report of Brig. Gen. Burton, inspector general of the United States army, the "abolition of the canteen leads to sickness, desertion and other crimes, as well as to impaired discipline." It is again up to the temperance people to rave and the W. C. T. U. to imagine a vain thing.

DANVILLE has electric lights and Russia and Japan have agreed on peace terms. Who says we haven't something to be thankful for?

Here and There.

Mt. Vesuvius is in full eruption again, throwing out an enormous mass of lava.

The will of Mrs. Samuel Colt, widow of the inventor of the Colt firearm, was probated, leaving an estate of $3,000,000. A large portion is left for religious and public purposes.

Efforts to operate the Reed Hill mine at Tracy City, Tenn., failed, although Adjt. Gen. Harvey H. Hannah supplemented the force of Deputy Sheriffs with two companies of soldiers.

The case of Polk Fletcher, charged with criminal assault on Marie Gladder in Logan county, was given to the jury Wednesday afternoon at 3:40, but no verdict had been reached at last accounts.

Policemen Wm. Britton and Luther Herron testified at Harrodsburg in the trial for the killing of Sam C. Black and Walter Stotts. Both men claimed self-defense. Yesterday was spent in speaking on the case.

In an effort to "take" a Henderson Route train, near Stephensport, Albert Ray was killed and William Blain was seriously wounded. Huebank, a colored porter on the train, is held for the shooting.

Not satisfied with the report of the Court of Inquiry on the Bennington explosion, Secretary Bonaparte has ordered Capt. Lucien Young, of Kentucky, and Ensign Charles T. Wade to appear before a court-martial.

Yellow fever has shown itself at Vicksburg. Pensacola reports another case. The condition at New Orleans remains unchanged, but in some of the parishes the disease continues to make inroads. Chattanooga has established the strictest quarantine.

A confession said to have been made by James Bass at Lawrenceburg, and strongly implicating William H. York in the killing of York's brother, was read to the aged suspect in jail at Louisville. He showed great agitation, but was not shaken in his denial.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Rev. S. Owsley, the "Old Warhorse," will preach at Moreland Sept. 3rd, writes the pastor, Rev. P. Walker. Eld. Joseph Ballou will preach at McCormack's church at 11 o'clock Sunday morning and at 3 in the afternoon on the subject, "Hearts and Friends."

Rev. R. R. Noel is just back from Olive, where he held a good meeting, there being 11 confessions. He will preach at Pleasant Point to-morrow and Sunday, the small-pox quarantine having been raised.

The general secretary reports that there are 154,593 Sunday schools, with 1,522,473 teachers and a total membership of 14,168,305 in the international field. Robert Raikes would hardly recognize his offspring if he could see the Sunday schools of today.

The meeting at the Christian church, continues to draw large crowds which greatly enjoys both Eld. L. M. Omer's splendid sermons and the good music furnished by the choir, led by Prof. Daugherty. Mrs. Kersey, of Lexington, is ably assisting with the musical program. There have been 11 confessions to date.

Members of one faction of the Missionary Baptist church at Old Flat Lick, Knox county, threaten to take legal action against the other faction to regain possession of the building. According to the reports, one faction, constituting the late converts, believe in the doctrine of free will, advocated by the minister, Rev. McBlarney, and at a recent communion service the free-will members desired the affair to be participated in by all who so desired, while the older members opposed such a stand. After several disputes the new members ordered the old ones out of the building and barred the doors. The old members proceeded to organize, but have not been able to obtain possession of the church building.

POLITICAL.

Mrs. Emine Wilson was appointed postmaster at Felix, Russell county. J. C. Vorhees was elected city judge of Danville to succeed C. R. McDowell, resigned.

The Atlanta City Council postponed until to-day the investigation into Mayor Woodward's recent exploit at Toledo on his plea of indisposition. Mayor Woodward denies that any apology is due any one.

Many Republican leaders are by no means certain that President Roosevelt has abandoned his determination to call an extra session of Congress to consider the railroad rate question. Congressman Townsend says he will introduce a new bill covering the private car feature.

County Sunday School Convention.

Last Spring Prof. E. A. Fox, secretary of the Kentucky Sunday School Union, while in Stanford held a conference with our Sunday school workers and it was decided to hold a county convention in the early autumn. A committee was appointed to arrange for the place, time and program. The committee has done this work and a good, strong program has been arranged and the convention will be held in Crab Orchard Baptist church on Saturday, Sept. 23, just before the fourth Sunday. The committee is composed of members from each of the churches in Stanford and we are very anxious to have a report and a representative from every Sunday school in Lincoln county. I want to urge the Christian church Sunday schools to send delegates and reports. Now let us all fall into line in this good work, in which we can do so much for the advancement of our Master's kingdom. Remember the time and place and let us awake to the necessity of cooperation and union in the Lord's work wherever and whenever we can.

L. M. OMER,
Pastor Stanford Christian Church.

President Roosevelt's present attitude in regard to the negotiations at Portsmouth is expressed in the homely phrase: "Whistle softly, we are getting into the thin timber, but we are not yet out of the woods." The President, while gratified with the results so far accomplished, realizes that most important work remains to be done, and that there is a possibility of obstacles arising which may seriously delay the negotiations or wreck them entirely.

The $25,000 capital stock of the Swiss Colony Company of Shelby county has all been subscribed. The acquirement of the colony is expected to have a beneficial effect in an industrial way.

Fard to Find.

It would be hard to find a more perfect, curative medicine for disordered digestive organs than that gentle tonic, digestant, and torpid liver regulator, known as Dr. Caldwell's (Laxative) Syrup Pepsin. No other medicine has its specific power over these delicate and important organs of your body, upon which you have to depend for energy to carry on your daily work. It cleanses, digests, stimulates and cures. Sold by G. L. Penny, Stanford, and C. W. Adams, Hustonville, at 50c and $1. Money back if it fails.
